

I am a regular listener to KLOVE. I greatly appreciate the family oriented content they bring me and my family. I believe it would be a very big loss for the Chicago area if they were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster with other programming. I know that their positive and uplifting message benefits me, my family, and many others in the community.